TOPICS:

- Cybersecurity training and how you can help protect the Credit Union

You are invited to attend this mini-watchdog session featuring Carl York, from CliftonLarsenAllen. Once again, Cybersecurity Risk is one of NCUA's top supervisory priorities, according to NCUA's Letter to Credit Unions 16-CU-01. This session will discuss real risks, hackers and what they want and ways to reduce the likelihood of a breach occurring at your Credit Union. This session will provide practical advice regarding the most important activities that credit unions must focus upon to reduce cybersecurity risks.

In addition, Stephen Kwock of Kwock & Company CPAs will discuss the top accounting, auditing and regulatory issues facing credit unions in 30 minutes!

MINI WATCHDOG #21
October 11, 2017 (Wednesday Evening)
Waialae Country Club

Carl York, CISA, CRISC of CliftonLarsenAllen, will provide a lively discussion on cybersecurity. Carl has more than 25 years of experience in financial services including 13 years of planning, developing, performing, supervising, and reviewing information system consulting engagements for banks, credit unions, health care organizations, insurance and other organizations. This includes leading and managing a team of security and compliance analysts who perform penetration testing and controls evaluations. Carl has a working knowledge of the information systems auditing standards as published by the Information Systems Audit and Control Association. He has significant knowledge and experience with the concepts, terminology, capabilities, and application of business and control risk associated with various information systems. Carl has an in-depth understanding of complex business processes with the underlying information security and control issues and is able to concisely and effectively communicate them to the internal and external parties. He regularly presents to boards, audit/supervisory committees, and organization staff regarding information security and evolving cybersecurity threats. In addition, he has a well-rounded IT background in governance and management of information systems.

Mini-Watchdog sessions provide an intimate format allowing open discussions about the subject matters and we will seek your input about your concerns of the challenges facing credit union in Hawaii. The objective is to provide some useful knowledge for each attendee to take back to their credit union that will help them plan for the future. Board of Directors and Supervisory Committees are increasingly seeking ways to enhance their credit union industry knowledge. The room will be set up to encourage questions and comments from everyone attending. We believe this session will be a very good learning environment and we hope that your knowledge will enable you to make good decisions for your credit union.

Dinner starts promptly at 5:30 p.m. and the session will begin at 6:15 p.m. and ends at 8 p.m. Sharp! Cost per person is $80, which includes dinner at Waialae Country Club. Seating is limited and previous Mini Watchdog sessions have been filled to capacity. Please register no later than October 6, 2017.
